Horn, who has been an editorial writer on the Gateway during the past semester, edited the 1931 Central High School annual. Cunningham has been business manager of the Gateway during the past year.

More than fifty persons are expected at the annual Junior-Senior banquet to be held in the Medical Arts Tea room at 6:30 this evening. Warren Wallace, chairman of the arrangements committee, announced Thursday. Seniors are guests of the Juniors. The Rev. Paul Turner, pastor of the Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church, will deliver an address. John Burke will speak for the juniors while Russ Baker, senior class president, will reply. Professor Orr, senior class sponsor, will also speak.

"Faculty members and students alike should make their reservations with me," Wallace said. "Dorothy Hansen, Fred Bonorden, and John Burke are also taking care of reservations."

Approximately fifty persons are expected to attend.

Pink, green, blue, and yellow dresses are to be worn by the Queen's attendants. They are Jean Andrews, Marie Hook, Charlotte Fetterman, and Maxine Steincamp. The Queen will be dressed in white.

Last year classes were disrupted and broken up by graduating seniors who went about with an improvised orchestra. The administration tends to forestall this happening this year by the foregoing regulation.

COMMITTEE LINES UP 12 ACTS FOR GALA NIGHT SHOW

Must Sell 200 Tickets
To Guarantee
Expenses

SEATS ON RESERVE

Twelve acts have been lined up for the annual Gala Night Show to be presented at the Central High Auditorium at 8:15 Monday evening, May 29. Chairman DeLoss Thompson said Wednesday.

Unless one hundred dollars worth of Gala Day tickets are sold by tonight the Annual Gala Night Show will not be held, Thompson said.

"The sale of tickets thus far has been far below expectations," Charlie Gardner, chairman of the ticket committee, said. "We positively must sell enough tickets to guarantee the financing of the show. I hope every organization on the campus will get behind the ticket sale."

Take Reservations
He said that it is imperative that salesmen turn in tickets they may have in order that the committee may estimate the probable attendance and receipts.

"The committee will take reservations until Monday afternoon," Gardner said. "Plenty of good seats are still available."

Twelve acts have been lined up by the committee. The play, "Brink of Silence" will be presented by Theta Phi Delta, while a song and dance act will be given by the Pi O's and Alpha Sigs.

Offer Slapstick Act
A play portraying famous sweethearts of the past will be offered by the Gammas. A mock trial will be presented by the Kappas while a takeoff on impersonations will be given by the Phi Deltas.

A slapstick act will be offered by the Phi Sigs, while a take-off on advertisements will be offered by the Sig Chis.

The show promises to be one of the best ever held, according to committee members.

Larry Hall Heads Lettermen Group

Larry Hall was elected "O" club president at a meeting in Joslyn Hall, Wednesday evening, May 24. He succeeds DeLoss Thompson, a graduating senior.

Lloyd Patterson is the new vice-president; Leon Fouts, secretary-treasurer, and Lowell Curtis, sergeant-at-arms.

RETROSPECT

PERHAPS during the year The Gateway, like the mountain, "in great labor has brought forth but a mouse." But even the humble mouse has some significance, as numerous stories attest.

From a rather casual publication with an ill-defined staff at the beginning of the year, the Gateway has developed into a regular weekly newspaper with a well-organized staff.

Carrying out suggestions of The Gateway, a number of important changes have been made about the campus. Notable among these are the institution of a Board of Publications, revision of the constitution of the Student Council, and improvements in conducting student elections.

Many more suggestions of The Gateway have not been acted upon. If, however, they have made even a few students or professors think about the many little things that could be done to improve the university or see things which they would not otherwise have seen, we feel The Gateway has been worthwhile.

THE EDITORS.

College is a finishing school for students, and when they get out they are finished.—Dr. Holt.

THANK YOU

THE editors of The Gateway wish to publicly thank President Don Norquist and Secretary Bob Johnson of the Student Council for the manner in which they co-operated with The Gateway during the past semester.

Due to the work of these two individuals The Gateway was given access to news sources that were denied other staffs in the past. We feel sure that this contributed in no little manner to make The Gateway of more interest to the student body than it would otherwise would have been.

The Gateway hopes that relations between future staffs and Councils will be conducted as smoothly.

Regarding degrees one day, They made a complicated regulation.

What it is I cannot say, And neither can the administration.

Americanism—Pleading for reform of this and that; howling in protest when effort is made to give somebody enough authority to reform anything.

Something ought to be done about the professors who think enough of their lectures to give quizzes on them.

"The library is suffering terribly from growing pains."—Miss Chestnut.

"Law is what the prevailing public demands."—Dr. Holt.

DECIDE SOONER

ONE of the first things that the new Student Council can accomplish next fall is setting aside definite dates on which Freshmen Day and Gala Day will be held.

Too much time was lost this year in attempting to decide suitable dates for the affairs. This was especially true of Freshmen Day. Through no fault of Freshmen class officers, it was not decided until late in the year to have the day and then, after permission had been gained, there was considerable bickering as to the date.

An excellent reform would probably be to combine Freshmen and Gala Days into one big all-university activity. The energies of students could be concentrated on one event while in the past, two separate groups have been laboring against odds to accomplish things fundamentally the same.

Now that examinations are approaching few students have time to go to classes.

BENCHES ON THE CAMPUS

A few benches located on some of the shady spots about the campus would be considered a boon by students seeking a cool spot where they may while away a few minutes' time.

Students, taking a respite from their labors in the sultry weather that always accompanies the last few days of school, are forced to go to Kountze Park or else seek a spot on the grass that adorns our campus in places. The latter method works a hardship on clothes while the former relief can only be had after several blocks of walking.

Another disadvantage of going to Kountze Park is that once one finds a comfortable spot in the shade near the lagoon it takes more than an ordinary entreaty to get him back to Joslyn Hall to resume his sweating in stuffy rooms.

A few benches could be secured quite reasonably and the funds could be obtained from the activities fund. Each student has contributed a dollar in the past two semesters. As far as we know, not much more than half of this fund has been spent as yet.

Another argument in favor of providing benches for the campus is that summer school students would have a place to rest between classes and escape the sultry summer weather. The need for benches on the campus will be even more acute than now.

With only two weeks of school left action will have to be taken immediately on this proposal if anything is to come of it this semester.

After all the work the sophomores had sawing down the flagpole it was unkind of the administration to come out and say that they had been wanting to get rid of it all along.

WE OBSERVE

Christensen will be thrilled to know that "Diamond Lil," the "Great Unkissed," the "Great Unloved," "The Untouchable," is now wearing Gregory's pin...tough luck, Christy...Schliffke swears that he has reformed...O. K. girls...Macken and Cooley seem to be "that way" over each other...Cook and Haberstroh break up on an average of once a week for the sheer pleasure of making up...Underwood seems to be aflame over this new red-head...

Wonder if the Phi Sigs have figured out which cracks they will leave out of their Gala act... For once, there wasn't any chiseling at the Theta party Sunday...It looked bad for a while, though, until Peterson and Timmons left...Walker and Tletsort kinda lost out on their meal Sunday...Better stay within calling distance next time, Woody...If I hadn't seen the doctor jerk Bob Johnson's appendicks out, I would say Bob pulled the trick for sympathy...

The girls at the Gala Day rehearsal were rather flustered when Butler walked in the other night...If it wasn't for the business that Lil' and Fetty bring to Jimmy and Freddy at their Root Beer stand, they might go bankrupt...We think it is about time the Gammas started hanging their pins on the Alpha Sigs...What about it, Lois?...Ray Larson is sure disappointed over the fact that Moody took another date for Saturday night...Ha, Ha.

GALA NIGHT SHOW—All student activity this week points toward the Gala Night Show. Rehearsals of the acts have been held two nights a week for some time. They are conducted in the Gym under the direction of DeLoss Thompson and Bill Wood much as some big-time musical comedy. Twelve acts are listed, but not all may "start." One act is sponsored by each fraternity and sorority, several individual acts are planned and the play production classes are giving one. Included are pantomime skits, drama, orchestral and dance features, mock court, and slap-stick comedy. Mixed together, baked to a golden brown and sprinkled with student-garlic, the show resembles George White's "Scandals," and when the price tag is seen, students mutter that it had better equal Mr. White's best efforts.

EXAMS—Once more exams are in style. Last issue's "fashion page" listed the proper times and places. Both morning and afternoon styles were exhibited. Cram and review accessories are also proper, but "crib-sheets" are distinctly out of date—at least with the faculty. As usual the fad will last but one week.

HALLS—Half-hearted criticisms have been advanced from time to time concerning the congestion in the halls, but with no apparent results. A few students have been objecting that people can't find any place but the very center of the hall or stairs to air their troubles and/or gossip. As one remarks, nothing is so annoying as to bump into a million skirted and panted love-sick dodos in one short trek down the hall, or to stumble over moon-light tete-tetes (without the moon) on the stair-steps.

RECAPITULATION—This has been a big year for Muni U. A comparison of conditions last fall with the present is all that is needed to show our progress. Here are some of the improvements, some of which will not become effective until next year:

1. A complete revision of the lower-division courses with new requirements for entrance and graduation.
2. The addition of a College of Fine Arts and a College of Commerce to the University.
3. The expansion of upper-division curricula to meet requirements of the North Central Association.
4. The creation of a Board of Publications to supervise all student publications.
5. The revision of laws pertaining to student elections with the aim of removing politics as far as possible.
7. The recognition of our credits by Kansas University and other institutions of higher learning.

This record is good, but other goals such as a new campus and North Central recognition are yet to be attained. They will not be too long in coming.

FRAGMENTS—Every instructor should have to submit to the critical student test of their abilities and short-comings, that some of the faculty hereabouts are given...Bursar Crenshaw's clerical help has evidently taken up palmistry...An orchid to the World-Herald and Bee-News for their support of the University...Dr. Garlough, "Some students are enough to turn a man's hair red."...The Campus Sage, "Nothing peps a girl up like a younger boy."...The safest place on the campus during archery classes seems to be in front of the target...A street car every three minutes disturbs Mrs. Gearhart's English classes...Thank you, Mr. Motorman. We'll do as much for you some time...We hope you all have an enjoyable summer. Bon Vacation!

Lack Of Space Hampers Library

"Stack Privilege" May Be Obtained by Securing Permission From Attendant, Miss Chestnut Declares

"Students who wish to use the book stacks may always obtain permission by asking one of the librarians," Miss Inez Chestnut, head librarian, stated Thursday.

"The Municipal University library is run on what is called the Closed Stack system because of the scarcity of space," Miss Chestnut continued. "Some day we hope to have a larger library with shelves around the walls where the students can easily get at them. Possibly we may have three rooms, one for reference books, one for reserved books and one for magazines."

Will Purchase Chart
Meanwhile the books must be kept in the cramped quarters, where it is impossible to open the stacks to the whole student body, Miss Chestnut explained. "If we let a hundred or even fifty students go back there, it would be so crowded no one could find a book."

This summer Miss Chestnut is going to purchase a chart to show the location of various types of books in the stacks. Such a chart will be valuable to students who want to look over the books related to certain fields, she expects. A plan for teaching students how to use the library will be inaugurated next fall.

The seating capacity of the library is greater in proportion to the number of students in the university than is the capacity of the University of Nebraska library, Miss Chestnut stated.

Considerate of Librarians
"We realize the tables are close together and so we have resisted the suggestion of Dr. Stouffer that we place chairs at the ends of the tables as well as at the sides," she said.

"I think the students realize that the librarians don't like the cramped quarters any better than they do, and when we occasionally 'shush' them it's because they are all in one room and the tables are so close together. On the whole the students are very considerate of the librarians and of each other," Miss Chestnut has found.

"The library is suffering terribly from growing pains at the present time," she says. "All that we can do is to put up with the present conditions and wait patiently for the developments the future will bring," Miss Chestnut concluded.

Omaha U. Golf Team Defeated By Iowa State

University of Omaha's golf team totaled 5½ points to Iowa State's 12½, Monday, May 22, to add another victory to the Cyclone's unbroken chain. The match was played over Dundee.

Howard Wilcox beat Engeldinger of Iowa State, 2 to 1, and Bob Anthes tied Melanbacher, 1½ to 1½. Both doubles combinations made one point.

A strong wind pushed eighteen-hole totals into the eighties. Bowman, Iowa State, carded 81; Tabbar, Iowa State, 82; Wilcox, Omaha, 82; Engeldinger, Iowa State, 83; Anthes, Omaha, 84; Melanbacher Iowa State, 84; Putnam, Omaha, 89; Lindberg, Omaha, 89.

Students On Tour Write Miss Stauss

Miss Hildegard Stauss, German instructor, recently received word from one of the group of German students who entertained at assembly here in January, that they are now touring Japan.

The letter tells of their trip through the United States, and a few of the experiences in the places they visited. They are planning to return to Germany by way of either India or Russia.

The group is a part of the "Wandervogel," or youth movement, in Germany.

With all these economists attempting to forecast business trends, Howling Tom observes that even a stopped clock is correct twice every day.

Barbs To Present 'Farmers Frolic' In Gym Tonight

Climaxing the Municipal University social season, the Barb Council's "Farmers' Formal" Barn Dance will be held in the University gymnasium tonight. Lloyd Hunter's Brunswick recording orchestra will furnish the entertainment.

The band, of which Julian McPherson, '36, is a member, is composed of thirteen colored artists and entertainers.

Final arrangements were completed Thursday, according to Clyde Clancy, '35, chairman of the social committee. Assisted by Leon Fouts, '34, treasurer, and Evelyn Schnackel, '35, president, he has been planning decorations for the dance.

Fouts stated that hay will be strewn about the sides of the gym and that other decorations in keeping with the spirit of the occasion will be supplied. Several surprise features are planned.

Students will be allowed to come dressed in any costume suitable to this "happy-go-lucky" event.

Ice Cream 'Treat' Is Feature Of Visit

A "treat" of ice cream was the high point in a tour of Omaha stock and grain exchanges by Dr. J. H. Rhodes' Business Cycle class, Tuesday morning, May 23.

Visiting Jackson Bros., Boesal & Co., first, they surveyed the market board and saw the famous "ticker" in action. An anxious and excited crowd watched the market rise a few points.

A dish of ice cream was afterwards served to each member of the class with the compliments of Dr. Rhodes.

DISHING OUT SPORT HASH

LET'S get reminiscent and look over the sport record of the University of Omaha for the year 1932-33.

We got off to a great start with a football season that probably surpasses in interest that of any previous year. A successful season isn't one in which the home team chalks up a string of decisive victories. Wake up any coach in the middle of the night and ask him. If he isn't on his guard and there are none of the team around he'll tell you the Cardinal grid season could not have been better.

We won five, lost two, and tied one. Just enough victories to keep enthusiasm at a high point. Just enough losses to give the team plenty of fight. And almost every game just close enough to make the result doubtful all the way through.

Cotner went down like the Freshman Day flagpole in the first tussle, 26 to 0. Later in the season we found out what it was like to be walked over, when a speedy DePaul outfit squelched the Cards, 34 to 6.

The rest of the games were nip and tuck. Simpson defeated us, 7 to 6. We downed Chadron, 7 to 6. Wayne held the Redbirds to a scoreless tie. The remainder of Omaha's tilts were victorious over St. Benedict's, Kearney, and Nebraska "B."

IN basketball Omaha's quintet added nine successive victories to the twenty it had listed the season before. But the chain was snapped at twenty-nine. Injury after injury, slowed the Cardinal aggregation, and they coasted in with mostly losses.

IN spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. Maybe that's it, but whatever the cause, when we come to the track season we find history repeating itself. Omaha's track team is unable to beat schools that its football team can smother. But we took three firsts in the state meet, thanks to Howard Sorensen and the 880-yard relay team. And Daye Lewis' pole vault record is untouched.

Omaha Uni. Co-Ed Wins Tennis Meet

Audrey Bartholomew, '34, won the women's state intercollegiate tennis championship by defeating Ruth Peterson of Nebraska Central, 6-2, 6-2, at Fremont Saturday, May 20.

Marion McLaren of Nebraska university, women's state open tennis champ, was defeated by Miss Bartholomew in the second round. Margaret Gloe, '34, lost to Dagny Nielsen of Dana college in the finals of the consolation tourney.

Card Golfers Rout Glenwood, Ia., 12-1

The Cardinal golfers scored their fifth victory in eight meets Wednesday, May 24, when they downed the Glenwood, Ia., country club team, 12 to 1, in a match at Dundee.

Averil Sherman nosed out Sedloff, Glenwood's town champion, 2 to 0, in the feature match. Howard Wilcox beat Cheyney, Stanley Putnam beat Henderson, Bob Anties beat Nimic, all 3 to 0, and Stanley Gregory tied Masters, 1 to 1, to complete the lineup.

THREE GOLF TOURNEYS LEFT FOR OMAHA TEAM

Municipal University's golf team will drive to Clarinda, Ia., this afternoon for a match with the Clarinda country club team.

Matches Tuesday and Wednesday against Malvern at Red Oak, Ia., and Clarinda here, respectively, will complete the Card schedule.

GALA DAY SPORTS PLANS EXTENSIVE

Competition Includes Golf, Tennis, and Track

With track events crammed with entries and tennis and golf tournaments in the second round, University of Omaha this week was looking forward to plenty of sports competition on Gala Day, May 29.

Varsity team members were barred from all athletic events. Aspirants to track and field crowns were allowed to enter as many events as they chose.

First round results in golf and tennis tourneys follow:

Golf: Wolf beat Rahn, 3 and 2; Hegarty beat Franklin, default; Wall beat Woodyard, default; Barbee beat Lake, default.

Tennis: Sevlck beat Woodyard, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4; Ossian beat Johnson, default; Knott beat Griffin, default; Putnam beat Wolf, 6-1, 6-1; Bradley beat Hall, default; Rundlett beat Hubler, default; Barbee beat Turner, 6-3, 6-2; Svoboda beat Gernandt, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Many Defaults In Tennis Tournament

With Gala Day only five days hence the tennis tournament to decide the Gala champ is progressing rapidly. Two quarter-final matches had been played by Wednesday, May 23. Many defaults marked the rapid progression of the tourney.

The results so far are: First round—"Rip" Hegarty advanced by a bye; Dick Sevlck beat Manville Woodyard, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4; Elmer Ossian won by default from Stuart Johnson; Gene Peterson won by default from Marshall Dunn; Fred Rahn won by default from Marlin Wilkinson; Bill Knott beat Hoyt Griffin by an unannounced score; Harry Bradley won by default from V. Hall; George Alexander advanced on a bye; Jim Gregory won by default from Vernon Lake; Lowell Rundlett drew a bye; Bob Barbee beat Kenny Turner 6-3, 6-2; Art Svoboda beat Bob Gernandt, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3; Stan Putnam beat Karl Wolf, 6-1, 6-1.

Second round—Dick Sevlck advanced by default from Hegarty; Bradley defeated Alexander, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

8 New Track, Field Records Established

Track and field records for Municipal University total eight this season, Coach Hartman announced Monday, May 22. Only six previous records remain unbroken.

New records follow:

100-yard dash—10.2 (Cliff Anderson). 220—22.2 (Charles Dickerson). 440—52.6 (Bill Barrie). 880-yard run—2.06 (Travis Dixon). High hurdles—15.7 (Leo Peary). Discus—137 ft. 10 in. (Harold Wilkes). Javelin—163 ft. (Leo Peary). Broad jump—22 ft. 4 in. (Cliff Anderson).

erson, anchorman, took the baton 12 feet behind Nelson of Kearney, but a burst of speed enabled him to nose the Antelope flash out at the tape. Other members of the team are: Bill Barrie, Clifford Anderson, and Jack Nieman. All are freshmen.

"Red" Lewis, holder of the conference pole vault record, and George Hartman, 1932 winner of the shot put, were unable to take part in the meet.

Western Union College Added To Grid Card

Western Union college of LeMars, Ia., will replace Simpson college on the Municipal university football schedule for 1933, Coach Sed Hartman announced on Monday, May 23. The game will be played in Omaha November 10.

Prospects for a successful season loom up bright, with only one veteran, Carroll Sales, graduating. Dave Biddles, halfback, who proved a dependable ground gainer last season, has dropped out of school and is not expected to return.

The nine-game schedule, the toughest in the University's history, lists four other home games. They are: Doane, Oct. 13; Wayne, Oct. 20; Wesleyan, Nov. 24, and Chadron, Nov. 30.

The Cardinals open the season with DePaul university in a game billed as a World's Fair attraction, in Chicago, Sept. 29. Other games away from Omaha are Kearney, Oct. 6; Washburn, Topeka, Kans., Oct. 27; and Peru, Nov. 3.

Racquet Wielders Tie Cotner College

Cotner College of Lincoln tied the University of Omaha tennis team 3-3 Friday, May 19, on the Dewey courts. Omaha was leading 3-2 at the start of the last doubles match, and after one set had been taken by Cotner, the Omaha team defaulted due to the illness of Greenstone, who was playing with Pfeiffer.

The results are: Singles—Autry (O.) beat Rasmussen, 6-4, 6-1; Brown (O.) beat Witzenberg, 6-1, 6-1; Marshall (C.) beat Greenstone, 8-6, 5-7, 6-4; Haggard (C.) beat Pfeiffer, 7-9, 6-3, 12-10. Doubles—Brown-Autry (O.) defeated Rasmussen-Witzenberg, 6-1, 6-1; Haggard-Marshall (C.) defeated Greenstone-Pfeiffer, 12-10 (Omaha conceded last set).
